Subject: Exciting Partnership Announcement: [Program Name] Teams Up with CareerVillage for AI Career Coach Launch!

Dear [Community Members],
We're thrilled to announce a groundbreaking partnership between [Program Name] and CareerVillage.org! Together, we're launching AI Career Coach—an innovative tool that's set to revolutionize the career readiness journey for our students.

Coach, co-developed with educators and designed for all ages, offers personalized career guidance through 1:1 chat, mock interviews, and more. This partnership underscores our commitment to enhancing career development, leveraging cutting-edge technology while maintaining the invaluable human touch. We're excited about the positive impact Coach will have on our students' career readiness scores, providing tailored insights that empower them to navigate their unique paths with confidence.

Join us in this exciting venture, and let's shape a future where every student has access to personalized career insights! Feel free to reach out for more information or to get involved.

Best Regards,
